TONY PACE is coming to Canton/Akron Umstattd Hall Sept. 15, 2009

Entertainer Tony Pace, after his widely acclaimed performance at the Cincinnati Masonic Center in August 2008, has agreed to take his dynamic show to three additional cities in 2009 to support Masonic Learning Centers. Performances are lined up through Scottish Rite Valleys in Canton with Akron, Fort Wayne, Ind. and Wilmington, Del. and again in Cincinnati

Last year's Tony Pace Concert in Cincinnati was a featured packed evening of music, song and comedy enjoyed by hundreds of families with children of all ages. Known as "The Man With the Voice...who just happens to be very funny." Tony kept the audience wondering "Just what will he do next?" as he glided through a repertoire that included classic American standards, show tunes and favorite Broadway arrangements along with music from current Top Hit Charts. He is a master impersonator with dozens of voices including everything from Michael Jackson, to Frank Sinatra, to Louie Satchmo Armstrong. He not only sings the part, but dresses and acts the part with aplomb. Umstattd Hall is part of the McKinney High School, near The Football Hall of Fame.
